FROZEN NORTH

(Special to The Bonanza) RAWHIDE, Nev., April 8.— Extensive placer deposits have been discovered half a mile below Rawhide. It is claimed the dirt runs $35 a cubic yard.
It was located on the Dead citement is intense. Experts claim that it will equal the Klondike deposits.

ARMY OFFICER SHOOTS HIMSELF

SAN FRANCISCO, Cal., April 8.— First Lieutenant David A. Lindsay, U. S. A. signal corps, shot himself in the head in his quarters at the Presidio here this afternoon. The dead officer destroyed all his personal papers and no cause is known for the act other than the statement of his fellow officers that he appeared morose for several days past.

DEATH CLAIMS MINING MAN

AUBURN, Cal., April 8.—Walter Scott Davis, who died suddenly of heart disease at his home in this city, was cremated in Oakland yesterday. Davis was a colonel in the Civil war and gained his honors at the Battle of Gettysburg. He was a member of the Loyal Legion, of which Colonel Smedberg, retired, of San Francisco, is president. Colonel Davis came from an aristocratic Boston family and was a large wool merchant before coming to California in the eighties. He discovered, owned and operated the famous Mammoth Bar mine on the American river, which has produced $1,000,000. The Davis home is a beautiful country estate, as fine as any in Northern California.

Colonel Davis had been a sufferer for years with neuralgia and four years ago went to Boston and to Europe to receive medical treatment.
He was a native of Massachusetts, aged 70 years. A widow, one daughter and two sons mourn his death.

SUPERINTENDENT OF MINE MURDERED

SAN DIEGO, April 8.—Meager news of what is supposed to be a mining-camp murder is contained in the short dispatch received from San Quentin, Lower California, by Harry Cannon, proprietor of the hotel at that place, saying: "Smith killed Young."

The people are not so numerous in Lower California but that even Smith can be identified. C. J. Young, a man of about 57 or 58 years, is the superintendent of the Valladares Gold Mining company, whose properties are located about forty-five miles east of San Quentin. A. A. Smith, who has been working for him as a painter, is about 25 years of age, and went to San Quentin about a year ago. He later went to work for Young, and the supposition is that the killing was the result of a row over money matters.

QUARANTINE AGAINST CUBA WASHINGTON, April 8.—The marine hospital and public health service issued an order establishing a quarantine order beginning today against Cuba, with the exception of the Metropolitan district of Havana, which includes Havana, Marianao and Camp Columbia.

QUICK JUSTICE FOR POLICEMEN

(By Associated Press)
PHILADELPHIA, April 7.—Quick justice was meted out here today to four policemen who were arrested last Saturday for robbing stores and warehouses on their beats, which they patrolled in the wholesale district. Having been indicted early in the day on charges of larceny, receiving stolen goods and conspiracy, the accused pleaded guilty before Judge Kinsey and were sentenced to serve seven years each in the eastern penitentiary. The names of the convicted policemen are John Straub, John Kelly, C. Luckenbill and E.
Sithins. Seldom have prisoners been more scathingly denounced in a court than were the four policemen when Judge Kinsey imposed sentence.

DIRECTORS FOR NEW YORK LIFE

NEW YORK, April 8.—Alexander Orr, for many years director and for a time president of the New York Life Insurance company, retired as director of the company at the an-liam Luns and Rowland Hazard were elected to fill the vacancies on the board caused by the resignations.

(By Associated Press)
LOS ANGELES, Cal., April 8.—Admitting that more than $30,000 in refunds was given the Associated Oil company on shipments of oil out of Bakersfield, Edward Chambers, assistant freight manager of the coast lines of the Santa Fe, on the stand today, in a hearing before the state railroad commissioners, denied that these rates were incriminating, claiming that no other producers points as the Associated Oil company.

USES THE WHIP ON WRONG PREACHER

SALEM, Ore., April 8.—Declaring that their father, J. F. Goode, had been repeatedly slandered by Rev.
Samuel Roper, pastor of the Free Methodist church, Miss Lou Goode and Mrs. Nettie Rhodes armed themselves with rawhides and went to the church for the purpose of thrashing the clergyman. The ladies, however, fell on Rev. W. N. Coffey of Portland, who met the sisters at the church door, and this minister was given a severe beating. The women were accompanied by several friends to keep bystanders from interfering, but who took no part in the attack.
The incident was caused by a church row. Goode originally was a prominent member of the church and donated the site of the present building. Afterward he was expelled from membership. Roper tried to escape through a rear window when the women approached. Coffey greeted the sisters with a challenge to take out their spite on him and they took him at his word.

SALT LAKERS MAY GET STATE BANK

CARSON CITY, Nev., April 8.— A dispatch to the Reno Gazette says: there is an unauthenticated report in this city that Colonel Dorsey and Judge Corrigan, both of Salt Lake City, are the two men who have offered to take charge of the State Bank and Trust company and open the banks of that company in this state.

It is also stated that the plans for the opening of the banks have already been completed and that if the plans are endorsed by the directors of the State Bank and Trust company on April 15th, the banks will be immediately reopened.

UNITED STATES May Be Forced TO INTERVENE

PORT AU PRINCE, Hayti, April 8.—There is reason to believe that measures are now being taken here to force intervention of the United States, if possible. At the present moment apparent tranquility prevails, but there is good authority for the statement that hostility against the Haytian government is growing more intense. It is rumored that there are classes of Haytians who are opposed to the present government and contemplate movement which will bring matters to a crisis in a very short time. It is said they will take advantage of the presence in the harbor of United States warships to make an armed demonstration, not with the expectation of overthrowing the government, but in the hope of precipitating a landing of marines and subsequently American intervention. A prominent Haytian official who is highly esteemed in the foreign colony, said today: "At present conditions are intolerable and it is impossible that they can continue but a few more days. Prompt intervention on the part of the United States or some other power is the only means of avoiding a condition of absolute anarchy."

Harriman Acts as Erie's Good Angel

(By Associated Press.)
NEW YORK, April 8.—After an offer by E. H. Harriman to furnish funds to meet the obligations of the Erie Railroad company by the purchase of a new and large issue of notes, J. P. Morgan & Co. announced late today that holders of Erie notes amounting to $5,500,000, which matured today would either be paid in cash for their notes or given the option of taking new three-year 6 per cent notes and 5 per cent of new notes in cash. Harriman's offer was accepted by the board of directors of the railroad today. What proportion of maturing notes will be paid in cash has not been made public.

Illinois Being Placed In the "Dry" Column

(By Associated Press.)
CHICAGO, Ill., April 8.—With twenty-seven counties in Illinois placed in the "dry" column by yesterday's election, thirty-six of the state's 102 counties are now totally dry. Nine counties went dry last November. In addition, there are now nineteen other counties which are anti-saloon with the exception of one township in each. According to the latest returns, 886 townships cast votes against saloons and 304 townships in the state, including those which held elections last November. There are now 1028 dry towns and 323 wet towns in the state. The number of saloons voted out of business yesterday is estimated at 1100.
The city of Chicago did not vote on local option, the anti-saloon league being unable to obtain the number of petitioners required to have the question placed upon the ballot.

HIGHBALLS RUINED GOULD'S HOME

NEW YORK, April 8.—A special to the San Francisco Chronicle says: Howard Gould's answer in his wife's divorce suit filed today in court accuses her of misconduct with Dustin Farnum, the actor, of drunkenness and of spending money with reckless extravagance, simply to annoy him.
Gould does not want a public trial, but Mrs. George Gould (formerly Katherine Clemmons) does. The question of having the evidence heard before a jury was argued before Justice Dowling in the supreme court.
Gould's lawyer urging that the judge alone, should hear and decide the case.

Gould alleges that his wife became "enamored and infatuated" with Dustin Farnum in September, 1906, attended the theatre here at which he was playing at every performance, had him with her every evening in her apartments at Hotel St. Regis, followed him to other cities, took him to and from the theatre in her automobile, stopped with him at the Bellevue-Stratford hotel in Philadelphia, at the Marlboro-Blenheim hotel in Atlantic City, and at the Hotel Carroll in Lynchburg, Va., and generally so behaved that her conduct became a public scandal, especially among the members of Farnum's company.
At dinner at Lynchburg she became so drunk, Gould says, that she fell off a chair and lay helpless on the floor. After dinner she resumed drinking, fell on the ground and lay there for hours. Her excessive consumption of intoxicants dates back to 1902, Gould states. She disgraced him, he alleges, in hotels and restaurants, at the theatre, at a church wedding and other public occasions by her boisterous behavior while under the influence of liquor.

In 1905 her daily beverages were:
Three or four cocktails before breakfast or lunch, a pint of Moselle or Sauterne; after lunch brandy high-balls till dinner time approached, when a few more cocktails were inorder. At dinner, champagne if which she would partake liberally.
After dinner liqueurs and brandy highballs for a nightcap. He says she kept all kinds of whiskeys, bran-dies and liqueurs in her boudoir.

At Palm beach in 1905 she and a man friend drank a whole bottle of brandy between them at one sitting, with only one bottle of seltzer to dilute it. Gould says her insulting language and quarrelsome disposition compelled him to leave Castle Gould on Long Island, where they had been living together. To please her he had agreed to build this castle, which was designed as an imitation of Castle Kilkenry, Ireland, and had spent $1,700,000 on it when their separation occurred.

Gould makes detailed allegations concerning her "flagrant moral and criminal" relations with Colonel William F. Cody (Buffalo Bill) before Gould married her. He says she led him to believe at the time of their marriage that her relations with Cody were proper.

whole matter as the students have

STANDARD OIL OFFICIALS DENY

(By Associated Press.)
SAN FRANCISCO, April 8.—An absolute denial was made today by the officials of the Standard Oil company and the Great Western Power company here that they are connected electric light and power companies of Northern California will be controlled by the Standard Oil interests or by the Great Western Power company.

(By Associated Press)
SANTA BARBARA, Cal., April 8.— Edward R. Spaulding, a Buffalo banker, who was thrown from his buggy near here on Saturday, died this evening without having regained consciousness. Mr. Spaulding, who was 63 years of age, was the son of Eldridge Gerry Spaulding the famous at $5,000,000. He first came here in 1897, was a large owner of city property and a stockholder in the County National bank and the Potter hotel.

ANNA GOULD TO HAVE HER PRINCE

(By Associated Press)
NEW YORK, April 8.—It was definitely announced that the opposition of the Gould family to the marriage of Madame Anna Gould to Prince de Sagan had been withdrawn and that the marriage will take place within a few months in Paris. The announcement was made after a dinner at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Gould at which many members of the family were present. George J. Gould was not at the dinner, but his wife was, and it was said authoritatively that George Gould's consent would be forthcoming in a few days.
Mr. and Mrs. Frank J. Gould, Edwin Gould, Howard Gould and Miss Helen Gould successively agreed that Madame Anna should be allowed to have her way, and Mrs. George J.
Gould, who had shared her husband's antagonism to the Prince de Sagan, visited Madame Anna at the Hotel St. Regis on returning to town from Hot Springs, Va., and also decided that her sister-in-law ought to be permitted to marry the man of her choice. Madame Anna Gould was radiant with happiness tonight.

STOCK MARKET WAS SLUGGISH

NEW YORK, April 8.—At the stock exchange today the price movement was even more sluggish and undecided than yesterday. A report on the April condition of winter wheat and rye was made the vehicle for an attempted revival in activity.
The indifference of the stock market to this factor proved a disappointment to the trading element and they fell back upon the Erie financial problem as a repressive influence on the market. Bonds were steady.

Gift of $100,000 had been made by a woman believed to be Mrs. Frederick Canfield Penfield, formerly Mrs. Anna Weightman Walker, for the proposed Catholic high school for girls in this city.

(By Associated Press.)
ALBANY, N. Y., April 8.—The vote of Senator Owen Cassidy, Republican, late today caused a tie vote of 25 to 25, and defeated for the time at least the two Agnew-Hart bills embodying the recommendation of Governor Hughes that legal protection be abolished, which since 1895 has protected public gambling at the race tracks, whereas it is felony elsewhere in the state.

SCOTTY'S PROMISE LEADS TO PRISON

SAN BERNARDINO, Cal., April 8 —Arthur McArthur, a well-educated young Chicago man, came all the way to Death valley to be shown the mysterious source of Walter Scott's (Scotty's) wealth. Scotty and his right-hand man, Bill Keyes of Death valley, took the young man in charge in Nevada, and after he had bought an outfit took him over a rough trip through Death valley, the Panamint range and Inyo valley.

At Barstow the horses were seized by Landlord Parks of the hotel to satisfy Scotty's board and drink bill.
McArthur tried to recover his horses and was promptly thrown in jail for refusing to recognize the writ of attachment. After he had been brought to this city he was released.

McArthur says that he has been considerably of a fool. He spent all his money on the trip, and like many others failed to see the mine from which Scotty alleges he takes all his wealth.

TO AID QUAKER UNEMPLOYED city council will be asked this week to appropriate not less than $50,000 to relieve the distress among the unemployed. A committee was appointed to go before the council's finance committee and impress that body with the fact that more than 200,000 persons are out of work, and that at least $50,000 is needed to prevent women and children from starving.

NEW ORDINANCE
District Attorney McCarran yesterday filed an ordinance restricting the use of gasoline in business portions of town, and submitted it to the commissioners, which in all probability will be acted on by that body at their next regular meeting.
